YOU MEN

In the shop, back of the counter; teaching the school; plowing the farm.
Don't forget this: the limited business means limited opportunities. We have a CHANCE for some of you who will work hard to build yourself into a responsible position at large salary. To men of character with references, who can give surety bond, we will pay guaranteed salary and commission to take orders for our art portraits. We will prepare you by a series of careful lessons. Business building is the shortest road to business success.
Sixty days honest, persistent work will give you a crew management. Address

AMUSEMENTS.

"WOULD YOU FOR FIVE MILLION?"

—The story of "Would You For Five Million?" which will be seen at the Grand Opera House in this city, to-night, deals with a subject entirely new to the stage, and one which admits of many new and novel comedy situations. The play comes highly endorsed by the Eastern press and will be presented by a company of rare excellence.

George Parsons, the new star, has been for the past six years a member of Mr. Collier's companies.

In support of Mr. Parsons, are Maud White, who was Stuart Robson's leading woman; Isabelle Urquhart, Maye Louise Algen, who, the past two seasons, played the leading heavy roles with the Castle Square Company in Boston; Georgia Drew Mendum, a niece of the well-known actor, John Drew; Myrtle May, Belle Robinson, Clarence Handyside, last season with Kyrle Bellew in "A Gentleman of France;" Morgan Coman and Charles Arthur, Becton Radford and H. G. Hockey.

COLORED MINSTRELS.

—At the Grand on next Thursday night, Low Tigner's Big Colored Minstrels and famous Marine Band will appear. Manager Porter has investigated this company and found it to be the best colored organization on the road. Especially is this true of the singing and music. The company includes Tom Mc-Intosh, Jerry Barnes, McKissick and Jones, and twenty-five others. For this occasion the balcony has been reserved for colored persons. Prices, Dress Circle, 50c; Parquette, 25c; Balcony 50c; Gallery 25c. Reserved seats on sale at Borland's, Wednesday morning.

Resolutions Adopted by the Paris Bar on the Death of Samuel B. Rogers.

Be it resolved by members of the Paris
Bar:

That we have heard with profound regret of the untimely death of our brother, Samuel B. Rogers. He was admitted to the Bourbon Bar, June 14th, 1893, and shortly thereafter was appointed attorney of the city of Paris. He discharged his duties faithfully, and by his close attention and untiring efforts in his chosen calling was highly successful. Taken away in the prime of useful life, his loss will be greatly felt by his State, his family and his friends.

He was a brilliant young man, a loyal and brave friend, a true gentleman. He was kind, generous and upright, respected by all in the community in which he lived. Few had a brighter future than he. In his death the State loses a great loss, the State loses a brilliant lawyer; we a true and devoted friend.

He was a kind husband, an affectionate father and devoted brother. By his open upright life he had endeared himself to all. His death is sincerely mourned by all who knew him.

Be it further resolved that we extend to his family and all his sorrowing relatives our sincerest and deepest sympathy in their bereavement, and that the Bourbon Circuit Court be requested to order these resolutions to be spread on its records and that the newspapers of the city be requested to publish same.

Be it further resolved that Hon. John S. Smith is selected to deliver a memorial address on the life and character of Samuel B. Rogers on the first day of the next November term of the Bourbon Circuit Court.

LEADING THE WAY

One Who KNOWS

Should Lead the Way for

One Who

Doesn't KNOW.

In the line of our business, we know and can tell of values which will give pleasure.

Our knowledge is at your disposal. We want to show you our goods and make you prices. We have never seen the time yet that we could not sell our goods if we could only get a chance to show them. And our many years experience in the

FURNITURE BUSINESS

Has taught us that there is nothing that will make a home so happy as nice Furniure, Carpets, Good Stoves, and good, easy terms to put them on; and this is what we offer to our customers.

Don't fail to call and see us. We will sell you what you want.

Your credit is good at our store.
